PLEASE NOTE: Due to the unique circumstances presented by the COVID-19 virus, in accordance with the Governor’s Executive Order 202.1 and all subsequent orders, until further notice the April Commission meeting will be held via teleconference. The teleconference will be accessible to Commission board members, staff, applicants and the public. If any member of the public desires to view or participate in the meeting, please email Dave Wick at Dave@LGPC.State.NY.US for the web address and password. The meeting will be recorded, and made available to the public upon completion. In addition, as required under the Executive Order, a written transcript of the meeting will be available upon completion. As always, Commission decisions must be made based on the written record, and the subject applications have been distributed for public comment. If you wish to make a comment, please submit it to Joe Thouin via email by 10am 4/27/2020.
